

COVID-19 UPDATE

We would like to say a huge thank you for the continued support we have received over the past few months.

We've had lots of enquiries as to when Blagraves will be re-opening. We're still concerned it may be just a little too early. We take the safety of our customers and staff very seriously and have made the difficult decision to remain closed for little while longer. In the meantime, we will continue to provide a takeaway service.

Menus and details of how to order can be found on our Facebook page with along with further updates
